

Advertise in our 2026 MetroWest Regional Fan Zone Guide

Now's your chance to reach thousands of visitors from across the region and around the world in the 2026 MetroWest Fan Zone Guide. This beautifully designed print and digital publication will highlight the excitement of the 2026 FIFA World Cup™ being celebrated in the MetroWest Regional Fan Zones—featuring giant jumbotron watch parties, food trucks, beer gardens, arts & crafts, and family-friendly activities, making these events a major draw for locals and visitors alike. The guide will include full schedules and event details, along with expanded listings of World Cup watch parties and soccer-themed activities happening throughout the region. It will also showcase the best of MetroWest Boston—featuring attractions, restaurants, retailers, and more—to encourage visitors to explore, dine, and shop while they're in town. With limited ad space available, your organization will stand out during one of the biggest global events of the year.

Publication date: May 15, 2026 digital, June 1, 2026 print

Print distribution: 6,500 English copies, 3,000 Portuguese copies, 3,000 Spanish copies available at regional hotels, community locations, and on-site at the Fan Zones in Marlborough and Franklin.

Digital distribution: Over 8.8 million impressions expected of the campaign driving visitors to view the guide. Digitally shared on the websites of the MetroWest Boston Visitors Bureau, Meet Boston, FIFA World Cup™ Boston 26, VisitMA.com, Discover New England, MetroWest municipalities and chambers of commerce, advertisers, regional hotels, and additional partners, as well as through a print, digital, social, and billboard advertising campaign.

Ad deadlines: Contracts and artwork are due no later than April 15. Ads are sold on a first-come basis and are limited. Space is not held until contracts are submitted. Payment must be received by May 1.
